“Prole do bebè” by Heitor Villa – Lobos consists in two pieces: Prole do bebè n.1, dedicated to dolls, and Prole do bebè n. 2, inspired by small animals . Children’s world is often contemplated by the composer and offers here a surprising and intense pianism on a technical level. It is evidently about an experimentation with timbre sometimes brought to an extreme, while being exceptionally rythmically polyphonic, which is typical for Villa-Lobos’ compositions.
